Ad hoc announcement pursuant to Art. 53 LR

medmix appoints Itee Satpathy as Chief Human Resources Officer

medmix announced today that Itee Satpathy is to succeed Friedrich von Gadow as Chief Human Resources Officer and member of the Executive Committee, effective December 1, 2021. Friedrich von Gadow is returning to Sulzer as he has been appointed as Head Human Resources for Switzerland.

Itee has been serving for the last three years as Sulzer's Global Head of People Development and Internal Communications, prior to which she was globally responsible for Talent Development and Diversity at Syngenta. Previously, she has worked across various areas of the HR function at Novartis. Itee Satpathy holds a Bachelors' degree in Economics and Statistics from Utkal University, India, and a Master's specialization in Human Resources from XLRI Jamshedpur.

"Itee brings a wealth of experience in talent management, business partnering, engagement, communications and sustainability with a proven ability to lead a global HR function. She will play a key role in medmix' upcoming phase of sustainable growth, as well as creating in a diverse and passionate global team," said CEO Girts Cimermans. "We wish Itee every success in her new role and thank Friedrich for his commitment to medmix, wishing him the best for his endeavors at Sulzer."
