INDUSTRY

Would you risk your business ...

HALLMARKS OF HIGH QUALITY

Counterfeiters mislead customers by using the trademark QUADRO™. Be careful when buying mixing tips, especially on the Internet.

Genuine QUADRO mixing tips are designed with Swiss technology. You will easily recognize the QUADRO trademark stamped on one of the four sides of the mixing housing and the white, orange, grey and green colors. To ensure quality and safety of your works, always buy from reliable sources.

You are highly qualified and experienced.

You have invested in quality and technology.

You keep yourself and your team up to date.

You have a good reputation as a professional.

You have loyal customers with regular orders.

Your customers recommend your quality and your performance!

... to save a few cents?

Do it once not twice!

Counterfeits endanger your working results and much more

Internet bargain or risky business

Ordering low-cost equipment via online marketplaces may look like a quick win but failed applications cost money.

Risk of legal actions

medmix enforces its rights against low-cost and low-quality manufacturers to protect its customers.

Risk of failure

Defective copies can lead to failed applications.

Poor mixing results

- Unmixed materials
- Unpredictable and inaccurate results
- Risks of additional costs and waste

Incompatibility

- Incompatible components
- Leakage or cross contamination

How low quality imitations do affect your business

Risks of using counterfeit products:

- Safety risks for you, your team, and your customers during and after appliance
- Damaged and rejected products
- Dissatisfied customers
- Injury of your reputation and a loss of performance, profit, and contracts
